- Meta/Facebook: ₹11,200 (40%)

Google Search

Campaign: BB_Search_Checklist_India
Goal: lead generation
Keyword themes: “simple skincare routine for beginners”, “daily skincare checklist”, “basic skincare routine”. Begin with exact/phrase match, inspect search terms, and add negatives for irrelevant intent such as jobs, wholesale, and courses.
Headlines: “Build a Simple Skincare Routine”; “Get Your Free 7-Day Checklist”; “Small Steps, Happier Skin”.
Descriptions: “Start with a practical checklist for daily skincare habits. Get yours by email.” / “Make self-care feel simpler with a free beginner-friendly guide.”
Measurement: landing page views, `generate_lead`, CPL, qualified-lead rate.

Google Display

Campaign: BB_Display_Checklist_Awareness
Goal: reach and qualified site visits; optimize for leads only when enough data is available.
Creative: botanical line art + checklist preview; headline “Make Skincare Feel Simple”; CTA “Get the Free Checklist”.
Formats: 1200×628, 1080×1080, 300×250, 728×90.
Targeting: contextual placements; eligible remarketing only with appropriate consent and sufficient audience. Monitor placements and frequency.

Meta/Facebook

Campaign: BB_Meta_LeadMagnet
Goal: website leads.
Ad set A: broad adult audience within confirmed service geography.
Ad set B: relevant skincare/self-care interests where available.

Warm audience: site visitors and page engagers only where eligible and privacy-compliant. Exclude existing leads where appropriate.
Primary text: “Skincare doesn't have to feel complicated. Get our free 7-Day Simple Skincare Checklist and make room for a few small, feel-good habits.”
Headline: “Your Simple Skincare Reset”
CTA: Sign Up.

Test matrix

Test	A	B	KPI

Guardrails

- Don't upload purchased/scraped lists or use sensitive targeting.
- Confirm current platform policies, geographic eligibility, and consent.
- Never claim guaranteed results or treatment of a medical condition.
- Evaluate lead quality alongside CPL; shift budget gradually.
